

I have heard that you are considering relaxing existing constraints on the degree of media ownership concentration. This cannot possibly be advantageous to viewers, readers and listeners and in no way seems necessary to encourage ownership participation.

Therefore, please do not take this action. Your actions are on the public record and history is watching.

Regards,

William Blozan
Ph.D., business economics